

Final Jeopardy Questions:

Personal Health:

An inflammation of the membrane lining of the eyelids and covering of the eyeball this highly contagious condition is commonly known as “pinkeye”.

What is conjunctivitis?

Linked to “runners high”, these substances produced in the brain, help reduce pain and create a feeling of well being.

What are (Beta) endorphins?

The main cause of teeth loss in adults, this disease affects the gums and other tissues that support the teeth.

What is Periodontal?

This kind of exercise is one which the body demands more oxygen than is available and a person begins to pant for air.

What is anaerobic?

A type of depression associated with winter months when the amount of sunshine is decreased:

What is Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD)